NUMB. 1717

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19. 1740. No. 1715.

Yesterday arriv'd the Mail due from Holland.

Petersbourg, Nov. 30. N. S.

HE Duke of Courland is narrowly watch'd at the Caſtle of Schlieſſelbourg, for fear he ſhould be his own Executioner. Mean time the Court has ſeiz'd his beſt Effects and his Papers, which laſt are carry'd to the Privy Seal Office to be examin'd. Orders are likewiſe iſſued to ſeize the Reve- of all his great Eſtates in Livonia, and the other ...ces of this Empire. Several Captains and other ...ers of the Navy are come hither from Cronſtadt, ...d, and other Ports of this Empire, to compliment Count d'Oſterman on his Conſtitution as High Ad- ..., and to receive his Orders. All the Foreign ...ſters at this Court have, by Order of the Miniſters ...e Cabinet and the Princeſs Regent, been acquainted ... the Reaſons for depoſing the Duke of Courland, ...r keeping him Priſoner near the Emperor's Court, ... of ſending him out of the Empire.

'Tis impoſſible to expreſs the Satisfaction which the ... Princeſs Anne has given ſince ſhe was veſted with ... Regency, her Imperial Highneſs having not only ...d the Love of all the good Subjects of the Emperor ...ſe, by her obliging Behaviour, but attracted their ...miration for her good Senſe, Greatneſs of Soul and ...ſtice; ſhe has bought the Houſe which was the ... Marſhal de Munich's to live in herſelf, and has ...ſe him a Preſent of that in which ſhe dwelt before ... Marriage. She has alſo made a Preſent of 20000 ...ins to the Counſellor de Munich, and nominated ...e Brevern and the Major General de Llieven, both ...rlanders, Members of her Privy Council. The Duke ...Courland's Brother, the General de Biron, is ſent Pri- ...er to Kexholm, together with M. de Beſtachoff late ...ſter of the Cabinet.

Warſaw, Dec. 7. N. S. As ſoon as the Primate of ...Kingdom heard of the Fate of the Duke of Cour- ..., he ſent for all the Senators and Nobility in Town, ...held with them what they call an Interim, or occa- ...al Senatus Conſilium, in which they came to the fol- ...ing Reſolutions, viz. 'That the Duke of Courland ...ng been oblig'd for that Dignity to nothing but the ...commendation of the late Czarina, there was no Like- ...od that the States of that Duchy would reclaim him, ...much leſs of his being able to ſupport his Title in ...Circumſtances to which he was now reduc'd; that ...Advice that the Court of Ruſſia intended to ſend ...es to Courland, in order to take that State under its ...ecial Protection, the Republic ought without De- ...to maintain its indiſputable Rights to that Duchy; ...that there was an abſolute Neceſſity of petitioning ...King to ſend a Miniſter to Petersbourg, to repreſent ...Courland being a Fief of the Crown of Poland, 'tis ...Republic's Right to take that Duchy under its Pro- ..., and that he hopes the Court of Ruſſia will re- ...from their Deſign of ſending Troops thither.'

Dantzick, Dec. 12. N. S. According to the laſt Ad- ...from Mittau, all the Effects belonging to the ...e of Courland, amounting to a conſiderable Sum, ...ſeiz'd by Order of the Court of Ruſſia; moſt of the ...ers he had eſtabliſh'd there are to be diſmiſs'd, and ...r Changes are expected, eſpecially in the Govern- ... The Poles are reviving their old Project of di- ...ing Courland into Palatinates; but 'tis ſaid it will be ...ſ'd by the Nobility, who, it ſeems, have ſtill an ...clination to Count Maurice of Saxony, who was pro- ...d for being Duke of Courland in 1726, and would ...aps have been choſen after the Death of Duke Fer- ..., if the Recommendation of the Czarina and the ...ſence of her Troops, had not turn'd the Election in ...our of the Count de Biron, now a Priſoner at Schlieſ- ...burg. Mean time we hear the Count is returning to ...ſden from Paris.

Vienna, Dec. 10. Some Days ago two Letters came ...ther, one from the Elector of Bavaria, and another ...m the Elector Palatine, for the Queen, with this ...ſcription, 'To her moſt Serene Highneſs the ...reat Ducheſs of Tuſcany, born Archducheſs of Au- ...ria;' which Addreſs not agreeing with the Queen's ...ſes, the Letters were ſent back unopen'd, in the ...e manner as the Queen's Letter to the Elector of Ba- ...ria was return'd from the Court at Munich. Mean ...e 'tis obſerv'd, that the Elector of Mentz has ſtil'd her Queen of Hungary. The King of Pruſſia's Miniſter, the Baron de Borck, having receiv'd two Expreſſes from his Court, has communicated the Diſpatches to the Queen's Miniſters, and had a long Conference with them, after which two Meſſengers were diſpatch'd to Berlin, one of whom carries ſeveral Orders from the Queen to the Marquis de Botta her Miniſter at the Pruſſian Court. The Count de Kinski, Great Chancellor of Bohemia, will furniſh her Majeſty with half a Million of Florins, at 5 per Cent. The Prelates of Auſtria are ready to do the ſame; and the Heirs of the late wealthy Count de Metſch will likewiſe lend her a conſiderable Sum at the ſame Intereſt.

LONDON.

Letters of the 29th ult. N. S. from Naples ſay, they had a ſlight Earthquake there about that Time, but it did very little Damage. And they have Advice at Rotterdam, that an Earthquake happen'd on the 24th ult. at Barcelona, which threw down ſome Steeples and Houſes.

Thoſe of the 3d Inſtant from Genoa ſay, that the Corſicans have given over all Hopes of ſeeing the Baron de Neuhoff more, he having bid them Farewel in a Letter, wherein he ſays, that they will one day or other ſee the Succeſs of the Pains he has taken for their Happineſs and Tranquillity.

It appears by Letters of the 16th inſtant from Paris, that the French Men of War ſailed for America are 39 in Number; viz. 18 under the Marquis d'Antin, 10 under the Marquis de la Roche-Allard, 6 under the Chevalier de Neſſarond, and 5 under M. Roqueſeuille, and that there are 4 or 5000 Land-Forces on board the ſeveral Squadrons. The King has iſſued an Edict for creating new Annuities on the Town-houſe of Paris, to the Value of 6 Millions of Livres, from 7 to 14 per Cent.

The Letters of the 29th ult. from Spain, confirm the Preparations making by that Crown to ſupport its Pretenſions to Part of the Dominions of Italy, which are founded, as they ſay, on a Diſpoſition made by the Emperor Charles V. wherein 'tis provided, That upon the Extinction of the Male Branch of the Houſe of Auſtria, certain Eſtates or Fiefs ſhall devolve to the Crown of Spain. The Letters add that another Squadron is ſpeedily to ſet out from Cadiz for the Weſt-Indies, where there are already 32 Men of War, under Command of the Admiral Don Rodrigo de Torres, and the Commodores Don Blaiſe, and Don Pizaro. The Forces which 'tis propos'd to ſend to Italy, are 36 Batallions and as many Squadrons; and as ſoon as they are ready in Catalonia for ſailing, 'tis ſaid an Embargo will be laid on all Ships then in the Spaniſh Harbours to tranſport them. 'Tis ſaid that 6 Men of War are actually ready for ſailing at Cadiz, where 8 more are alſo fitting out; that there are 3 more at St. Andero, and a like Number in the Harbours of Galicia; ſo that in leſs than two Months a Squadron may be form'd of 20 Ships of the Line, to convoy the ſaid Tranſports.

Letters of 1ſt Inſt. O S. from Francfort ſay, that Part of the King of Pruſſia's Troops, on the March for Sileſia, have already paſs'd the Oder, in order to take the Duchy of Croſſen in their Way to the Principality of Glogaw. And thoſe of the 2d from Berlin ſay, that their Officers are to open their Inſtructions at a certain Place to direct their March, and that the King will review thoſe Troops in the Neighbourhood of Croſſen. But they write from Saxony, that ſome Regiments are order'd to march, to obſerve their Motions, and that the Elector's Troops are recruiting with all Diligence. Mean time 'tis ſaid the Pruſſians march 3 or 4 Leagues a Day, which is as much as they can poſſibly do, conſidering the Seaſon and the Weather.

They write from Vienna, that our Miniſter, Mr. Robinſon, has frequent Conferences with thoſe of the Queen of Hungary, wherein he had aſſured them, that his Britannick Majeſty would not only adhere to the Pragmatick Sanction, but was inclinable to enter into a ſtrict Alliance with the Queen for that Purpoſe.

Letters of the 3d Inſt. O. S. from Francfort on the Main ſay, that upon a Diſpute ariſen about Juriſdiction between the Landgraves of Heſſe-Darmſtadt and Heſſe-Hombourg, and the Preparations making by the former to march ſome Troops, the Inhabitants of Hombourg have begun to retire with their beſt Effects.

Thoſe of the ſame Date from Duſſeldorp ſay, the Rhine there is ſo ſwell'd that there's no going in or out of the Town, and that the Elector of Cologne's Gariſon belonging to a Fort on the other Side, is retir'd to the neighbouring Villages.

Extract of a Letter from Irvine in Scotland, Dec. 1.

" Friday laſt at Noon we had here a heavy Rain, which ended in a Fall of large Hail, ſo that every body betook themſelves to Shelter. This was followed with a ſudden and moſt dreadful Flaſh of Fire and Crack of Thunder, ſuch as neither we nor our Forefathers have ſeen or heard of: The Lightning gave no Warning, but accompanied the Thunder, which did not continue rolling as uſually, and was ſhort and quick; but the Noiſe greater and more frightful than if all the Ordnance on Earth had been at one Inſtant diſcharged. The Whole ſeem'd to break upon our Tolbooth and Steeple, drove in much of the Roof on two Sides, ſo as Waggons may paſs thro'; the Steeple is much ſhattered, and the Crevices large. The Town-clock was broke to Pieces, the Work either calcin'd or melted. The ſtrong Door of the Priſon was burſt up (notwithſtanding its large Iron bars) wherein were five Priſoners. John Muir, a Lad of 14, was killed as he ſtood at a Window, and every Stitch of his Clothes conſum'd; his Brother Robert, aged 12, knock'd down near by him, ſo that his Life is deſpaired of; another Brother of theirs ſtruck blind; their Aunt had all her Clothes burnt to Aſhes on one Side, and even her Skin flay'd off, worſe than could been done by any Bliſtering Plaiſter; ſhe ſtill lives, but in a diſmal State; her other Side ſeem'd untouch'd. 'Tis obſervable, that not one Bone of any of them was broke, tho' every Hair was ſinged, and that the ſulphureous Stench about them was intolerable. Archibald Bar, who ſells Fruit in a Stall below the Town-houſe, was knock'd down and much hurt. John Howie, Sailor, was knock'd off his Feet, and ſo hurt that his Life is in Danger, while one Gib, another Sailor that ſtood by him, remain'd untouch'd. John Galt, Maſon, with his Son, were levelled at once and hurt. John Cotton was thrown on his Face in his Shop. A poor Girl was ſtruck blind and ſenſeleſs in a Lane. Mr. Innes and Mr. Boyd, with many others, were laid flat on the Ground. Two Sailors coming from the Key ſay, that a large Pillar of Fire met them in the Face, which brought them to their Knees. Mr. Cuningham ſays, it appear'd to him as a moſt voluminous Pillar of Fire, proceeding quick as from the Mouth of Cannon; and that he thought, from the uncommon Smoke over the Tolbooth, the ſame had been all on Fire; he was tumbled down, and his Foot is much hurt. The People had ſcarce recover'd their Senſes, when two other Cracks of Thunder gave freſh Grounds of Terror, ſo that it was apprehended the General Judgment approached, and every one proſtrated themſelves in Humility, imploring Mercy from on High; but theſe laſt, tho' moſt terrible and uncommon, were nothing to the firſt. 'Tis thought, if it had ſtruck on the Side as it did on the Angle of the Fabrick, the whole muſt have come down. Great Hewn Stones were carried violently out of the Steeple to Baillie Nesbitt's Houſe, where they left Impreſſions. The Manner in which the Slates were carried off from ſeveral Houſes is ſurprizing. We have have all Reaſon to be grateful for the Goodneſs of God that this Scourge has done no other Damage as we have yet heard of, and particularly that the Showers of Rain and Hail had obliged People to take to their Houſes, whereas otherwiſe many more Lives muſt have been loſt.

On Friday laſt dy'd at his Seat at Redheath near Watford John Finch, Eſq; whoſe Death had been an irreparable Loſs to the Poor, had he not left a Son to inherit his Eſtate, which is above 1000 l. per annum. It has been generally ſaid this Eſtate was intail'd to keep a Pack of Dogs; which has no other Foundation, than that the Family have kept them upwards of 300 Years.

A few Days ſince died, at Calais in France, the Lady of ——— Cornwallis, Eſq; and Daughter of the late Dr. Robinſon Biſhop of London.

Yeſterday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers with the uſual State, attended by his Grace the Duke of Richmond Maſter of the Horſe, and the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg one of the Lords of the Bed-chamber in waiting; and gave the Royal Aſſent to the Land Tax Bill.
